Lester B. Pearson Newsletter – June 23, 2024

Inclusion Edition

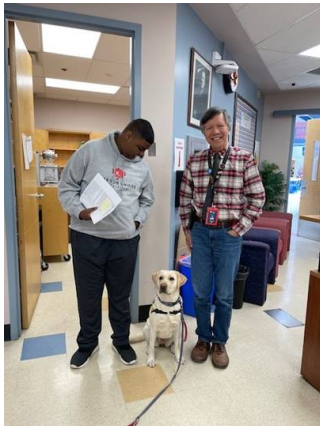

Dear Students, Parents, Guardians and Caregivers,

This will be my second last newsletter of the school year. While most of our students were immersed in final assessments, ACCESS and ALP were enjoying field trips and lessons with other teachers at Pearson. It was a lot of fun for all and these are more examples of how we are all family at Pearson.

Read on:

Every sunrise is a sight to behold.

Ahmed and Blair running errands. Here's Madson, Mamoon, Rayhan and Andy enjoying bubbles before it rains.

Our ALP class enjoying the fruits of their labour; the perogies were delicious and they even made extra to take home. Thanks to Chef Martin, Astrid and Bryson for the wonderful cooking lessons.

Mrs. Reimer and Penelope Pig. The apples were a welcome snack prior to Tuesday morning's exams!!!

Ahmed and Mamoon checking out the local diners with chef. No better way to end the day than with homemade banana splits. Humrie is all smiles!!!

They say an apple a day and arrive early for a few last moments of study before your Physics exam is the best way to start. Credit Recovery in the Learning Commons.

Good Bye to Angela Smith, her last day was yesterday. Angela's care and dedication shone in her short time with us. Ellie said good-bye, too, after completing her last ever high school exam.

Friday was National Indigenous Peoples Day. We took pause to reflect on the year and our school, department and personal Calls to Action. Randy Turning Robe Junior has been a friend and member of the Pearson Family for many years, supporting students and staff. He has graciously made time to be with us to support our work in TRC.

ACCESS assisting Mr. Bakos getting things ready for next year.

ALP enjoying being outdoors in the beautiful weather on summer solstice, the longest day of the year.

Calgary Selects Rugby Game; all our girls played hard, Harleen had a big steal in a lineout, Mannat made some good tackles on the wing and Ayana had a big try saving tackle at one point.
